

Graduate Study in STATISTICS

University of Kentucky

With coursework and research in

- Probability and Stochastic Processes
- Theory of Estimation and Hypothesis Testing
- Multivariate Analysis
- Nonparametric Inference
- Linear Models
- Design and Analysis of Experiments
- Response Surface Techniques
- Design and Analysis for Variance Component Models
- Operations Research

A new and dynamic program—eight faculty members.

Master's and Ph.D. degrees: Mathematical and Experimental Statistics.

Excellent computing and library facilities.

Financial Aid

Fellowships, traineeships and assistantships with stipends from $2,400 to $3,400.

Write to:

Dr. R. L. Anderson, Chairman
Department of Statistics
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky 40506